Job Posting: CL20-018

CLASS 1 DRIVERS

Commercial Logistic Inc. is an asset based trucking company, offering both less-than-truckload (LTL) and truckload (FTL) service to all points in the Province of British Columbia, Canada. We are a wholly owned subsidiary of ContainerWorld Forwarding Service Inc. Both companies are headquartered in Richmond, British Columbia.

Position: Class 1 Local Delivery Driver

Hours: Various shifts, primarily Monday to Friday dayshift

Position Overview: Local delivery driver within the south central interior (primarily Okanagan). Our entire fleet are late model trucks on full a maintenance lease program and our trailers are well maintained to ensure smooth operation – we want you driving, not trouble shooting mechanical issues! Our typical delivery routes include about 50% pallet deliveries and 50% hand-cart deliveries; there certainly is an amount of physical work, but we aren't lugging around heavy product all day every day.

Benefits of Working with Commercial Logistics

- Competitive, hourly wage with excellent benefits and potential for bonuses
- Full training program to ensure all new team members are in a position for success
- 100% local delivery work – no overnight shifts, no travel outside of the South-Central Interior
- Vast majority of work is handled during week days and normal daytime hours (most shifts are 7am-5pm either Monday-Thursday or Tuesday-Friday)
- Positive atmosphere, excellent team environment
- Most routes are primarily consistent week to week, allowing you to build relationships with customers
- Essential Service (Full operational during the current pandemic conditions)

Required Skills, Knowledge and Competencies

- Hold a valid Class 1 Driver's License with a clean driving record
- Be physically fit and capable of lifting 45lbs on a regular basis
- Be bondable
- Have at least 6 months Class 1 Driving Experience
- Strong customer service skills and business English required
